

Tactical Commanders Course

This course will separate tactical myth from tactical reality. It has been designed for team leaders and law enforcement commanders who want to experience concentrated, in-depth immersion in all aspects of tactical team-building from member selection to training and retention, Policy and SOP development, command structure and philosophy, and the latest use-of-force doctrines. Topics that will be covered are:

- Leadership concepts for SWAT Commanders
- Tactical planning and responsibilities
- Policy and Standard Operating Procedures development
- Command post operations and incident command
- Planning and conducting safe and realistic scenario based training
- Civil liability update in tactical and training situations
- Less lethal munitions case law
- Tactical situations case study scenarios
- Developing and implementing policy and SOP for rapid intervention to "active shooter" situations
- Suicide by SWAT
